PETER CAHOON
Partner

John Swansinger and Peter Cahoon will work with you to develop a customized training session to help you set up a Response Team in the event of a law enforcement or government raid. This private, confidential session will provide you with the critical information you need to successfully survive the raid. They will guide you through the following steps:

- Learn: Can they really do this? (Legality of the Search Warrant for the custodian, witness or target)
- Plan: Creating a Response Plan (Putting a Team Together)
- Execute: "Greeting" the FBI (Establishing the relationship).
- Mitigate Today: You and the FBI during the raid (Monitor and Mitigate impact)
- Mitigate Tomorrow: After the Raid (Control Damage/Control Spin)

PRIVATE • CONFIDENTIAL • PRIVILEGED

COST

Training is designed specifically for you. Sessions typically last 1-2 hours and can include your team. Contact us today to discuss an option that fits your needs.
